Weddings & Elopements Frequently Asked Questions

Is Glen Dessary suitable for destination weddings?

Very much so. Many couples travel to Scotland specifically to marry in the Highlands, and Glen Dessary Lodge provides a self-contained and private setting ideal for destination celebrations.

We are happy to assist planners and couples with practical arrangements and guidance.

Is there mobile signal or Wi-Fi?

The lodge is in a secluded Highland location, with no mobile signal.

Wi-Fi is available throughout the lodge.

Many couples and guests appreciate the opportunity to disconnect and enjoy the surroundings.

What is the nearest town?

The nearest village is Spean Bridge, with additional services available in Fort William.

Detailed directions are provided prior to arrival.

When is the best time of year to marry at Glen Dessary Lodge?

Each season offers its own character:

- Spring & Summer – long daylight hours and green landscapes
- Autumn – rich colours and dramatic light
- Winter – atmospheric and moody

Elopements take place from April through to November.

Do you work with wedding planners?

Yes. We work with destination wedding and elopement planners and are happy to support the planning process.

Planner visits can be arranged by appointment.

How far in advance should we book?

Popular dates, particularly between May and September, often book 12–18 months in advance.

Earlier enquiries are always recommended.
